THE HIMALAYAS. JEEP. YOU.

THE HIGHEST ROAD TRIP OF YOUR LIFE: WITH A JEEP WRANGLER TO THE HIMALAYAS!

The Himalayas – the most majestic mountain range on Earth. Stretching 2,500 km in length and up to 330 km in width, this colossal range rises between the Indian subcontinent and the Tibetan Plateau.

Home to ten of the world's fourteen highest peaks, including the legendary Mount Everest at 8,848 meters.

It beckons adventurers from all over the globe –
and we say:

Let's answer the call!

THE JOURNEY BEGINS.

WE'RE STARTING IN KUNMING: THE GATEWAY TO THE CLOUDS

Our journey begins in Kunming, the capital of Yúnnán, China's southernmost province. At an elevation of 1,890 meters, we'll handle the paperwork for obtaining Chinese driving licenses and receive our fully equipped Jeep Wranglers - ready to take us safely and comfortably through this epic adventure.

The first six days of our trip are spent in the picturesque south of China, acclimatizing to the altitude while exploring stunning sights.

Highlights include:

- Dali - a charming town on the shores of Erhai Lake
- Lijiang - UNESCO World Heritage Site with traditional alleys and tea houses
- The Tiger Leaping Gorge - where the Yangtze River showcases its breathtaking rapids

PARADISE BEYOND THE HORIZON

After our time in Yunnan, the legendary Sichuan-Tibet Highway takes us to the heart of Tibet. Passing breathtaking landscapes, we travel over the Dungda La Pass, past the picturesque Ranwu Lake and along the Yarlung River to Shangri-La: a fictional utopian paradise described in James Hilton's 1933 novel "Lost Horizon."

From there, our route takes us via Rumei City and ever higher into the mountains. From the Dongda Mountain Pass (5,130 m) through the "grasslands where eagles cannot fly" and over the Yela Pass with over 100 hairpin bends to Ranwu City.

LHASA: PALACES AND TEMPLES

And soon we will be at one of the most beautiful places on our planet. Lhasa, the holy city, invites us in.

Two UNESCO World Heritage Sites - the Potala Palace and the Jokhang Temple - will captivate us.

From Lhasa, we continue via Gyantse to Shigatse. Let us marvel together at the extraordinary route and the breathtaking natural beauty.

HEADING TO THE ROOF OF THE WORLD: THROUGH TIBET TO MOUNT EVEREST

Then we come to the grand finale: our trip to Mount Everest Base Camp.

We will have countless opportunities to see the highest mountain in the world from a wide variety of perspectives, right up until the golden glow of sunset.

The next day, we will enjoy a new and final view of Mount Everest early in the morning.

But that's not all: we will also have the opportunity to see the fourth highest mountain in the world: Lhotse, at 8,516 m.

OUR FINAL DESTINATION

GRAND FINALE IN LHASA: MAGIC AND THE ANCIENT MYSTICISM OF TIBET

After returning to Shigatse, we devote ourselves to Tibetan song and dance.

It is time to slowly say goodbye. We drive back to Lhasa. Here there are still many opportunities for leisure activities. In the evening, we round off this extraordinary experience with a dinner together.

A journey that will touch your heart and soul.

THE END OF A SPECIAL JOURNEY

As with your arrival, we will arrange your shuttle to the airport.
Please note: The route may be changed for a variety of reasons.
