Telluride | Moab Adventure

TRIP OVERVIEW

Journey from the alpine beauty of Telluride, Colorado, to the dramatic red rock country of Moab, Utah, on an adventure through two extraordinary landscapes. Begin with two nights at the Madeline Hotel in Telluride's Mountain Village, exploring iconic trails through the San Juan Mountains, where towering peaks, sweeping valleys, and remnants of historic mining communities tell the story of Colorado's rugged past. From there, winding roads and spectacular backcountry lead to an evening at Gateway Canyons Resort before the journey continues through Castle Valley and into Moab.

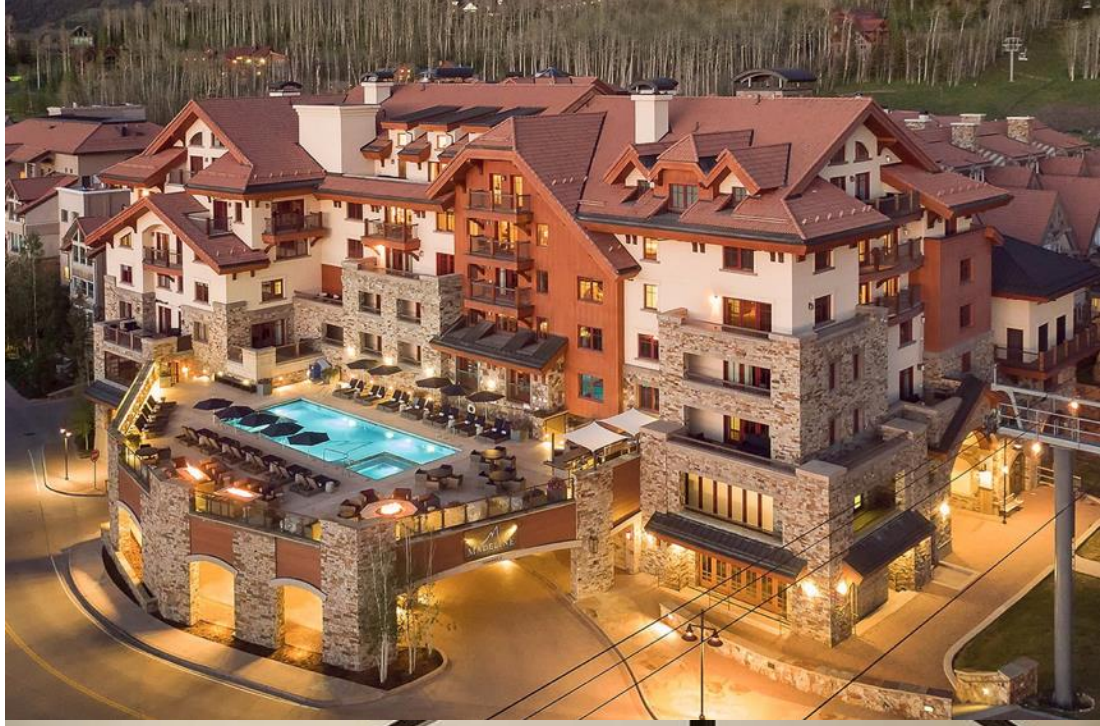

Spend your final two nights at the Hoodoo Hotel, just blocks from Moab's charming Main Street, with its shops, restaurants, and unmistakable desert character. Explore more trails among sandstone formations, dramatic cliffs, and expansive red rock vistas that make this region unlike anywhere else. Guided by the expert team from Jeep Jamboree USA and limited to just 10 vehicles, this intimate adventure offers personal attention and the flexibility to discover quieter trails and less-traveled corners along the way.

SEPTEMBER 19

4:00 PM - Arrive in Telluride's Mountain Village and get settled in. The Madaline Hotel is surrounded by the towering peaks of the San Juan Mountains. This evening, join your Jeep Jamboree USA team for a welcome reception featuring light fare and hors d'oeuvres, along with an orientation to the days ahead.

With just 10 vehicles in our group, it's a relaxed opportunity to meet your guides, share stories with fellow participants, and begin the friendships that will shape the adventure ahead.

SEPTEMBER 20

After breakfast, we'll depart with packed lunches for a full day exploring the iconic San Juan Mountains, tackling a selection of Jeep Badge of Honor trails as weather and conditions allow. Our team will scout the routes the day before to confirm access, as weather, special events, and trail or road maintenance may affect availability.

Along the way, we'll take in sweeping Rocky Mountain scenery and historic mountain towns that make this region so unforgettable. After a rewarding day on the trails, we'll return to Telluride for a group dinner to share stories and highlights from the day's adventures.

SEPTEMBER 21

Take your time this morning and explore Telluride at your own pace before we set out a little later on scenic Last Dollar Road. We'll wind through aspen groves with sweeping views of the San Juan Mountains as we make our way toward Ridgway.

From there, the alpine scenery gives way to western Colorado's red rock canyons. We'll gather for dinner and spend the night at Gateway Canyons Resort, founded by Discovery Channel creator John Hendricks. The following day, we'll continue toward Moab along the northern edge of the La Sal Mountains.

Overnight Gateway Canyons Resort

SEPTEMBER 22

We’ll depart Gateway Canyons Resort in the morning and make our way toward Moab, winding through the red rock canyons of Onion Creek Trail and into Castle Valley. After a quick stop at a local mercantile, we’ll head back out for a full day on the trails, exploring sections of the iconic routes that have made Moab is a cornerstone of Jeep culture. Just south of Arches National Park, we’ll wrap up the day at Hoodoo Moab, a short walk from Main Street. Dinner is at your leisure, with time to explore downtown and find a spot that looks good to you.

Overnight at the Hoodoo Hotel

SEPTEMBER 23

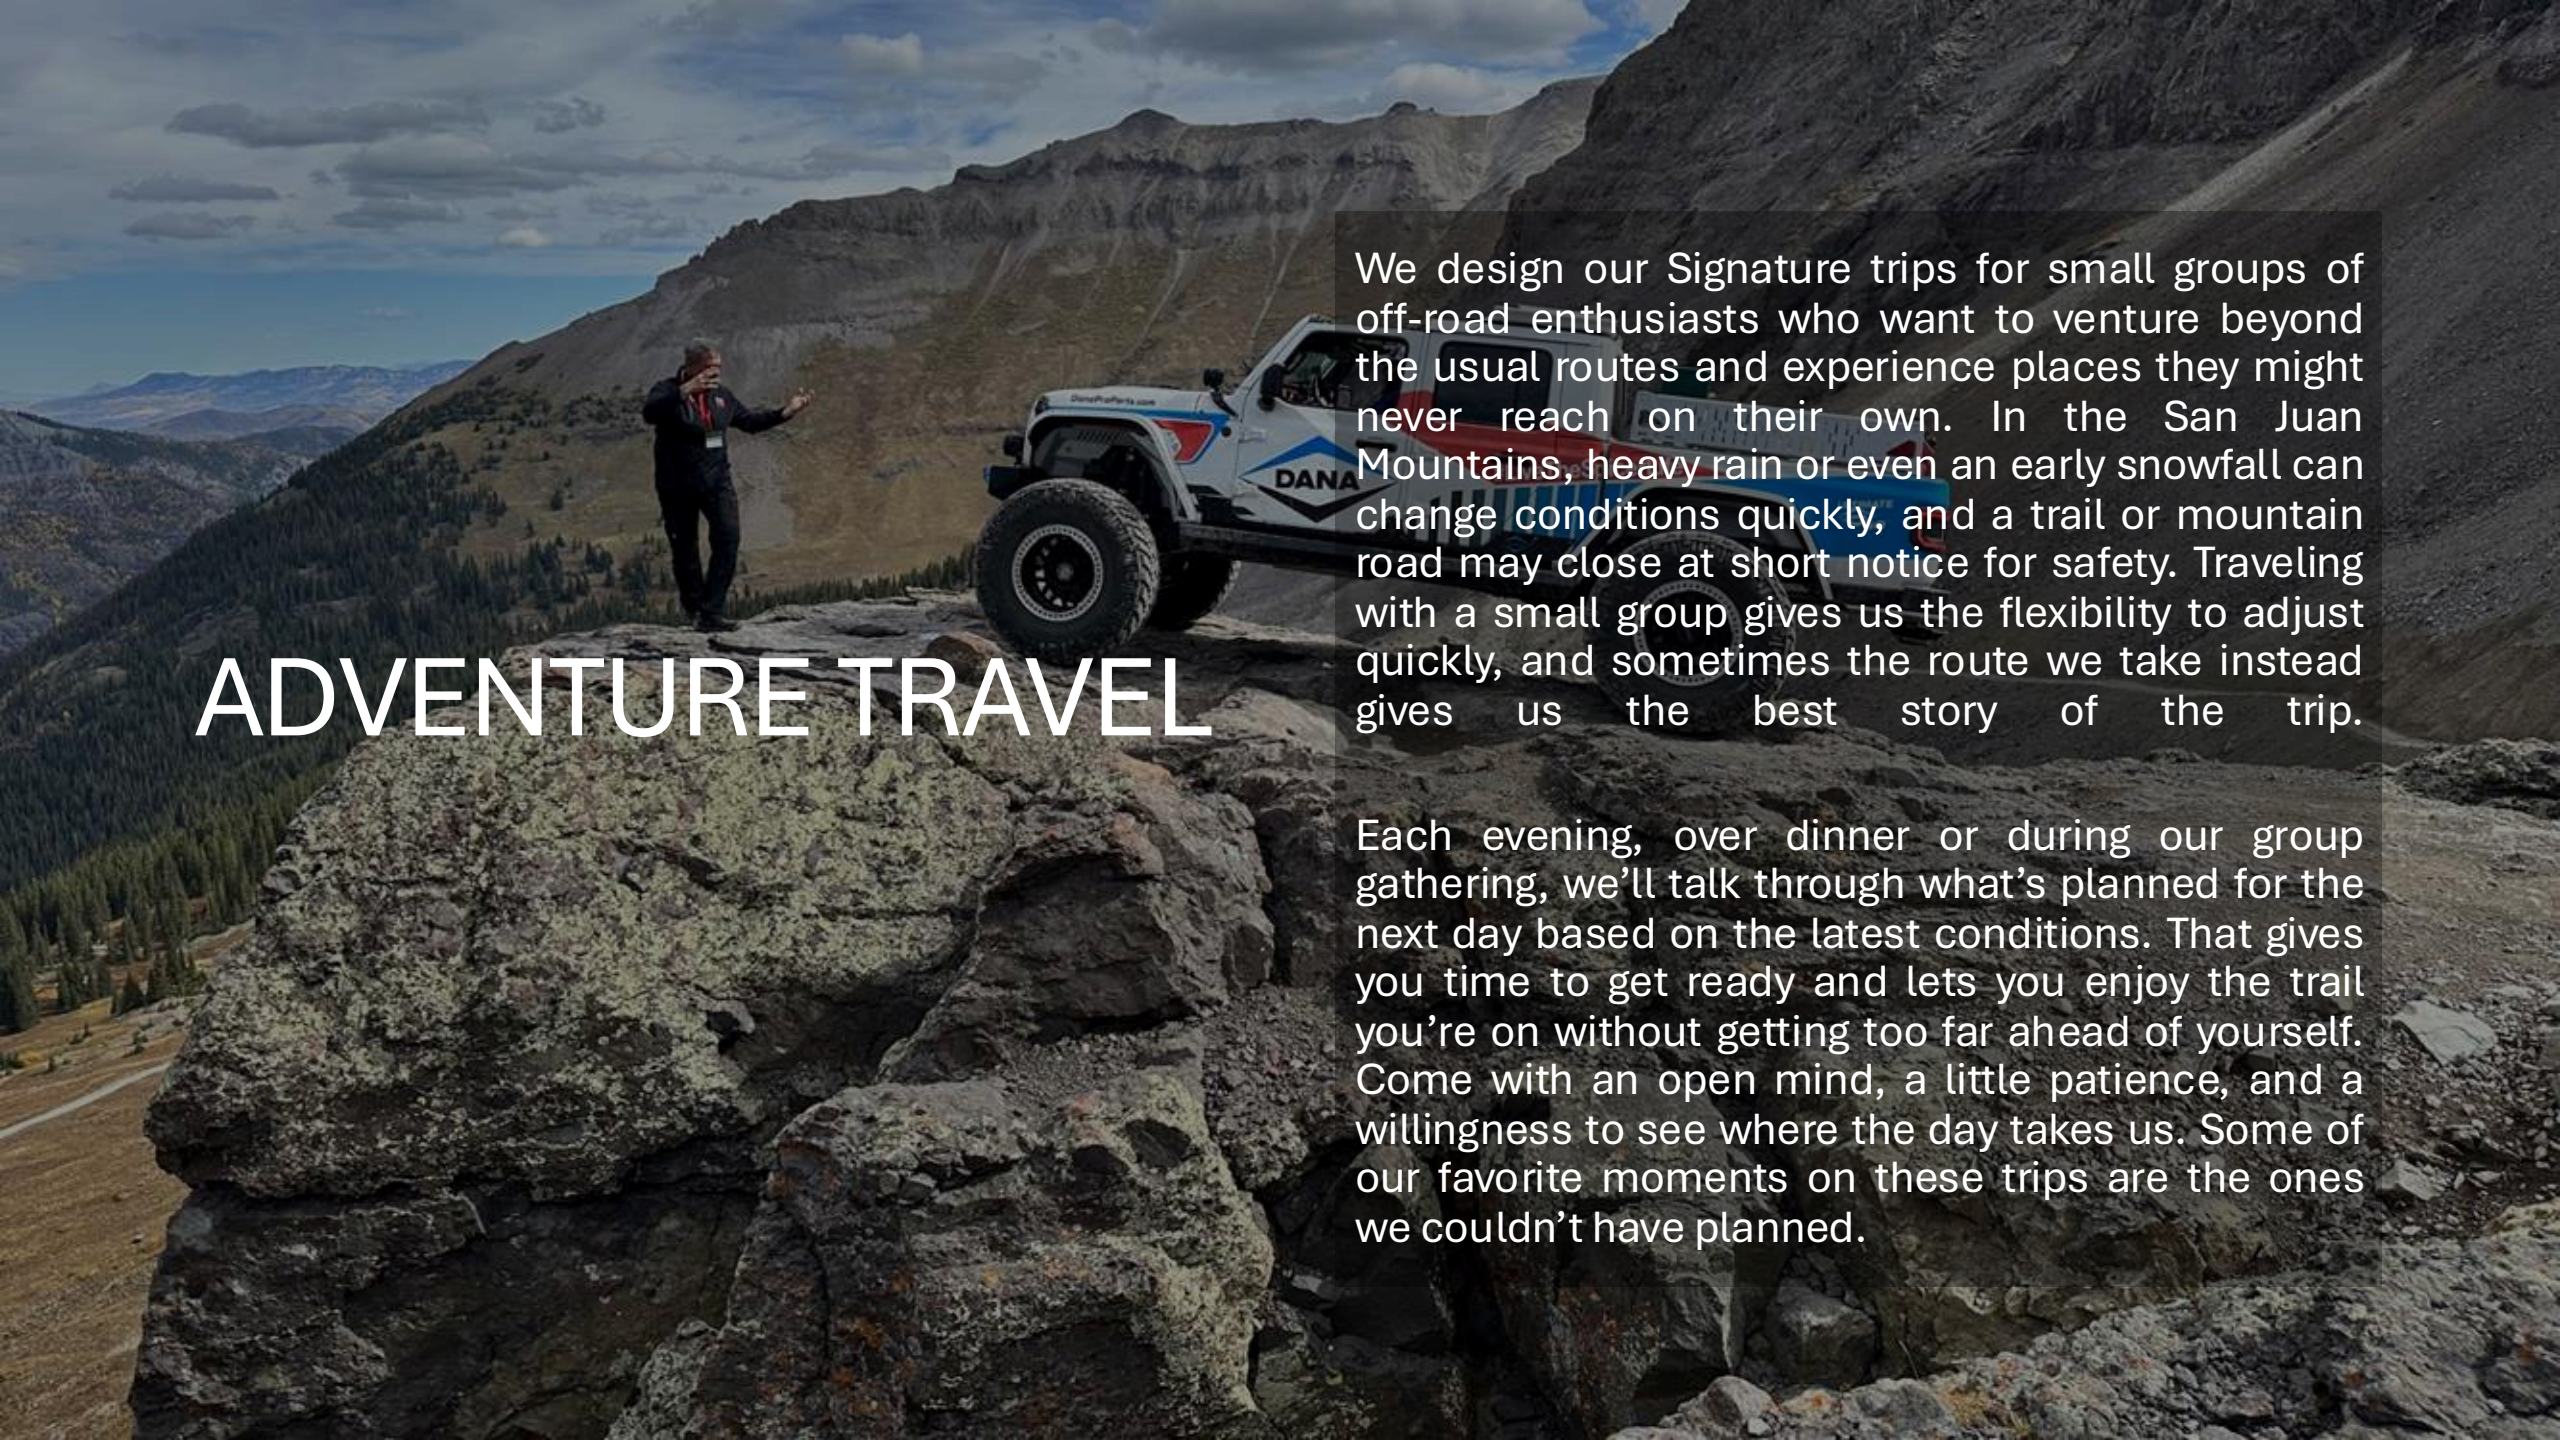

We’ll get an early start with breakfast at local favorites like Moab Garage Co. or Jailhouse Cafe, then pick up lunch from Love Muffin Café before heading out for our final day on the trails. We’ll spend the day exploring more of Moab’s red rock country and taking in just how far we’ve come, from the jagged peaks of Colorado’s San Juan Mountains to the sweeping slickrock and sandstone canyons of Moab.

That evening, we’ll gather for a farewell dinner at Hoodoo Moab, where we’ll swap favorite trail stories, share a few laughs with new friends, and raise a glass to the miles we’ve traveled together as our Telluride to Moab adventure comes to a close.

ADVENTURE TRAVEL

We design our Signature trips for small groups of off-road enthusiasts who want to venture beyond the usual routes and experience places they might never reach on their own. In the San Juan Mountains, heavy rain or even an early snowfall can change conditions quickly, and a trail or mountain road may close at short notice for safety. Traveling with a small group gives us the flexibility to adjust quickly, and sometimes the route we take instead gives us the best story of the trip.

Each evening, over dinner or during our group gathering, we'll talk through what's planned for the next day based on the latest conditions. That gives you time to get ready and lets you enjoy the trail you're on without getting too far ahead of yourself. Come with an open mind, a little patience, and a willingness to see where the day takes us. Some of our favorite moments on these trips are the ones we couldn't have planned.
